

I, Nicole Reitzel, oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves. If anything, I would have thought the FCC would strengthen their policy rather than lessen its policy.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. Our family and many of our friends have children and are spiritual beings. If the FCC does decide to lessen the policy standards many of us have spoke and decided that we will steer our attention/focus elsewhere and not watch television. Our God tells us to be careful of what we see and hear, so we will definitely be doing so.

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest positively. Some do not believe so, but I truly believe that what people visually see and hear does have an impact on the way people live out their lives. If individuals as well as children hear slanderous speech, know that they too will be using that language. Do we really want that to happen? Don't we want our youth to be respected individuals? I know I do. I urge the FCC to please reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

Thanks so much for your time and I truly hope that you all make the right choice.

In Him!
Nicole
